Provost & Pritchard adds three new staff members

Fresno, CA: Provost & Pritchard Consulting Group announced the addition of three new associates: Romina Pasten, PE joins the firm's team as an associate engineer, Anna Choudhuri as a senior planner, and Stefanie Moreno as an executive assistant. Their specialized knowledge and experience enhances Provost & Pritchard's ability to provide diversified consulting services for their clients.

"We are excited to welcome Anna Choudhuri, Romina Pasten, and Stefanie Moreno to the Provost & Pritchard team," said Dale Melville, the firm's president. "Romina's experience will enhance our engineering services in our northern service area, Anna's diverse planning capabilities will expand planning services we can provide to our clients throughout the state, and Stefanie will be an essential asset to the day-to-day operations of the Visalia office."

Pasten is a Registered Civil Engineer with over six years of experience as a design engineer, field engineer and construction manager for municipal infrastructure and national park projects ranging from $2 million to $12 million in cost. With a degree in Civil Engineering from Pontifical Catholic University of Chile, her areas of expertise include underground utilities, wastewater treatment, sanitary sewer systems, and capital improvement plans. Pasten will provide engineering and construction management support for the firm's public agency and national park clients.

Choudhuri is an environmental planner and project manager with over 12 years of experience with the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), and National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) regulations and requirements in California, Louisiana, Arizona, and New Mexico. She has masters degrees in both Urban & Regional Planning and Financial Economics from the University of New Orleans, Louisiana. Choudhuri has provided contract environmental coordination services for cities, and has been involved with the noticing, preparation and project management of numerous environmental compliance documents, and will utilize her expertise to work with the firm's clients for land use and environmental planning projects.

Moreno has over five years of experience that has included project management and administrative support at two higher educational institutions. A Visalia native, Moreno holds a masters degree in International Trade Policy from Monterey Institute of International Studies, and a Bachelor of Art in Political, Legal, and Economic Analysis from Mills College in Oakland. She will be working with senior management in the Visalia office with corporate and administrative functions.
